

THE CHARLOTTE W. NEWCOMBE FOUNDATION

CONFERENCE AT TEMPLE UNIVERSITY FOR INSTITUTIONAL PARTNERS IN THE PROGRAM OF

NEWCOMBE SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13-14, 2014

CONFERENCE AGENDA

Thursday, November 13 – in Schusterman Hall (Building 45 on the Temple campus map)

---

- 3:00 pm Check-in available at the Club Quarters hotel.
- 4:30 pm Hotel guests meet in the lobby for the shuttle van to Temple's campus.
- 5:15 pm Welcome Reception - Hosted by Temple University:
Disability Resources & Services and Corporate & Foundation Relations
- 6:00 pm Welcome Dinner - Hosted by The Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation
Welcome to Temple –
Dr. Theresa Powell, Vice President for Student Affairs
Kate Moore, Executive Director, Corporate and Foundation Relations
Newcombe Foundation update – Tom Wilfrid, Executive Director
Sharing of good news and current issues – One member from each institution
The story of Josh Winheld and the Winheld-Newcombe Scholarship –
Renee Kirby, Assistant Director, Disability Resources and Services
Guests: Michael Winheld, Steve Goldstein & Sue Gordon, Josh's father, uncle and aunt
- 7:30 pm Dramatic reading from *A Fierce Kind of Love
A new play written by Suli Holum and directed by David Bradley, produced by the Institute on Disabilities at Temple University. A Fierce Kind of Love will premiere in April 2016.
A Fierce Kind of Love tells stories from Pennsylvania's Intellectual Disability Rights Movement. Moving back and forth in time, it reveals how the struggles and triumphs of parents and activists from the 1950's through the 1970's inform present-day issues facing the disability community.
- Afterward On your own. Hotel guests: Van will depart from campus soon after the reading ends.

Friday, November 14 – in the 1810 Liacouras Walk Conference Suite (Building 17 on the campus map)

---

Hotel guests with cars: See attached map and directions to the Liacouras Garage.

Hotel guests without cars: Please share a ride or take a taxi to campus.

- 8:00 am Light Continental Breakfast available at 1810 Liacouras Walk Conference Suite
Fresh pastries, bagels, fruit, juices, coffee, and tea
- 8:30 am Campus Tour led by Temple students.
Tour to depart from 1810 Liacouras Walk Conference Suite
- 9:30 am Coffee break
- 9:45 am Serving Students with Disabilities at Temple
Presentation – Aaron Spector, Director, Disability Resources and Services
Q & A will follow the presentation
- 11:00 am Panel discussion among Temple University students with disabilities
Moderator – Vanessa Dash, Student Services Coordinator, Disability Resources and Services
- 12:00 pm Concluding comments – Tom Wilfrid, Newcombe Foundation
- 12:15 pm Lunch and continued discussion
- 1:00 pm Conclusion of conference